FOR HIRING MANAGERS

Hiring Manager Prep Sheet

Ten minutes with these before the kickoff makes the meeting faster and the search sharper, whether you're briefing an internal recruiter or an agency.

Have an answer for

1. Why this role, and why now, in one sentence.
2. What the person must achieve in their first 90 days.
3. The skills they need on day one, and the ones they can learn.
4. What you learned from the last person in the seat, if there was one.
5. The approved pay range, any bonus, commission or equity, and who approves going above the range.
6. The interview steps, who's involved, and who makes the final call.

Bring

- [ ] The job description, even a rough draft
- [ ] One or two profiles of people currently in the role, or in a similar role at another company, who you think would be a great fit
- [ ] The size of your team, and the key stakeholders
- [ ] Interview availability for the next two weeks
